

Figure S8: Preliminary data, error penalties subject to changes / kind of mismatch not yet implemented! Evaluation of primer combinations. Primer pairs with a combined penalty score of below 100 were considered working (= green), with pairs above that being considered to no or only poor amplification (=red). If primer binding sites in the sequences contained terminal gaps they were counted as missing data (=gray).